TIN

Tin is one of the oldest metals of mankind, also one of the most modern as it finds new applications in photovoltaic panels and electric vehicles.

Solder accounts for nearly half of tin consumed

VENTURE
MINERALS

BATTERY – ANODE MATERIAL

Growth of the lithium ion battery market has led to significant increases in demand for battery components. Battery anode material is a critical component.

STEELMAKING COAL

Global steel production is dependent on coal. Over 71% of the steel produced today uses coal. Metallurgical coal – or coking coal – is a vital ingredient in the steel making process.
